Local Girl Enters R-MWC

Julia Sheffield Hesson, of Route 2, Gladstone, Va. has entered Randolph-Macon Woman's College this fall as a freshman.

She was one of some 233 new students, including 210 freshmen, 20 transfers, and three three international students who arrived on campus August 29 to begin a two-day orientation program designed to acquaint them with one another and with college life. Randolph-Macon will have a total enrollment of approximately 721 students this year coming from 35 states and the District of Columbia and 16 foreign countries.

The college began classes this year on September 3, with the first semester ending before Christmas to avoid interrupting classroom work with a long holiday.

Legion Donates To Rescue Squad

Larry Young, member of the American Legion Post 104, on the right, is shown above donating check in the amount of $50.00 to the Appomattox County Rescue Squad. Accepting the gift on behalf of the ACRS is Ray Noble, member of the local rescue squad.

It is quite rewarding to find that so many of the civic organizations are ready and willing to contribute to our fine rescue squad.

"Daffodil" Will Debut During Railroad Festival

"Daffodil", the name chosen for Miss Appomattox 1973, entirely handmade and dressed by Hazel Harvey of Appomattox will make her debut during the Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival this week end. Mrs. Harvey will be showing this newest of her dolls along with many others dressed in the Civil War costume.

Spring came early one hundred-eight years ago when the Civil War ended in Appomattox and the whole countryside was ablaze with the golden daffodils. This was an unusual sight for the Northern soldiers to see and they plucked the golden blooms and enclosed the heads in love letters to their sweethearts back home. Daffodils carried the message of love and peace when it was needed after the long struggle of The War Between The States, thus came the name for Mrs. Harvey's newest doll. Be sure and see "Daffodil" during the festival here in Appomattox this week end.

In Memoriam

Martin: In loving memory of our wife and mother, Ollie B. Martin, who departed this life 3 ago, October 31, 1970.

Just why God called a loved one home
We cannot fully know,
But even in our deepest grief
as bitter teardrops flow,

Who shall say the grief is lessened
Though the smile may hide the tears,
Memories keep the wound still open
Despite the passing of the years.

We cannot bring the old days back
When we were all together
But secret tears of love and thought
Will keep us close together.

Our faith beholds a brighter day
In that eternal land
Where we shall meet those dear to us
And there we will understand.

At home in the beautiful city,
In the valley of rest so fair,
Some day when our tasks are over
We pray to meet you there.

Sadly missed by husband and children. 11-1-1p

In memory of my late family that passed away years ago, Mother, Father, sister, brother, husband and daughter.
To the graves I often wonder
Hours I place with loving care
And I feel that you are all near me
While I sadly linger there.
Life is hard to bear without you all
It can never be the same
All that is left is memories
And the pictures in the frames.
Nora S. McCormick 11-1-1p

In memory of my husband T. Randolph Gilbert, who passed away October 30, 1965.

Sad memories crowd this time of year when I lost the one I loved so dear,
Deep in my heart you will always stay
Loved and remembered every day
Time cannot steal the treasures That I carry in my heart and memories of the one I loved,
Still cast their gentle glow,
To grace my days and light my path wherever I go.
Devoted wife Katie 11-1-1p

IN Sweet and loving memory of my husand and our daddy, William Ernest Layne, Sr., who passed away two years ago, November 3, 1971.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true,
Just the love and sweet devotion,
Of the ones who think of you.

We cannot bring the old days back,
When we were all together.
But sweet tears of love and thought,
Will keep us close together.

Sadly missed by wife, children and grandchildren. 11-1-1p
